1 Scope

These STANDARD TERMS AND CONDITIONS, and all Exhibits, Attachments, and Orders (the "Agreement"), govern your ("Client") access to and use of EPG Media, LLC's ("Provider" or "EPG") advertising products and services. If you are accessing EPG's products or services on behalf of an organization, you are confirming that you have the authority to bind that organization to this Agreement. In that case, "Client" refers to that organization. Client and EPG are each a "Party" and collectively, the "Parties". EPG or an EPG affiliate or assign will provide to Client certain EPG products and/or services as set forth in the applicable Order(s) (as defined in Section 3) in accordance with this Agreement (collectively, the "Services"). Client may access and use the Services only in accordance with this Agreement.

The Services may include but are not limited to print, digital and preprint (insert and direct mail) advertising placements fulfilled by EPG entities that publish and/or distribute such advertising. If specified in the applicable Order, the Services may also include: a) custom data & surveys; b) graphic design; c) marketing services; d) custom publishing; e) website design; f) electronic newsletters (ENewsletters); g) podcasts; and h) magazines. By placing an Order, as defined in Section 3, Client or an advertising agency acting on behalf of Client ("Agency"), if any, accepts these terms and any additional terms and conditions set forth in the documents comprising the Agreement. Each Order shall incorporate by reference all terms and conditions of this Agreement between Client and EPG. The Agreement is effective as of the date the Parties have signed the applicable Order (the "Effective Date").

"Ad" or "Ads" means Client's advertisements intended for publication by EPG. "Digital Ads" are Ads in a digital format. Additional terms and conditions applicable to certain products and services offered by EPG are set forth in Exhibits A, B, and C hereto.

2 Term

This Agreement shall remain in effect until terminated or until no Order(s) remain in effect, whichever occurs first. The Order term shall be set forth in the applicable Order.

3 Order

The Services to be provided by EPG are set forth in one or more ordering documents provided by EPG and signed by Client (each, an "Order"). All terms and conditions of this Agreement shall apply to every publication and/or distribution of an advertisement on Client's behalf. No terms of an Order or other communication from Client shall be binding on EPG, unless said terms or other communication is in writing, expressly refers to this Agreement, states an intention to supersede a specific term or condition, and is signed by both Parties. An Order becomes part of this Agreement when signed by both Parties.

4 Client Obligations

Client shall appoint a Client employee to serve as the primary contact with respect to this Agreement and who will have the authority to act on behalf of Client with respect to matters pertaining to this Agreement (the "Client Contract Manager").

Client shall provide copies of or access to Client's information, documents, samples, products/services, or other materials (collectively, "Client Materials") as Provider may request in order to carry out the Services in a timely manner and ensure that they are complete and accurate in all material respects.

Client shall use best efforts to respond promptly to any Provider request to provide direction, information, approvals, authorizations, or decisions that are reasonably necessary for Provider to perform the Services in accordance with the requirements of this Agreement.

5 EPG Obligations

Provider shall use commercially reasonable efforts to provide the Services: (a) in accordance with the terms and subject to the conditions set forth in the applicable Order(s) and this Agreement; (b) using personnel of required skill, experience, and qualifications; (c) in a workmanlike and professional manner; and (d) to the reasonable satisfaction of Client.

6 Intellectual Property

6.1 Ownership of Client Materials.

Client and its licensors are, and shall remain, the sole and exclusive owner(s) of all right, title, and interest in and to all Client Materials, including all copyrights, trademarks, service marks, trade dress, trade names, trade secrets, patents, mask works, and other intellectual and industrial property rights (collectively "Intellectual Property Rights") therein. Provider shall have no right or license to use any Client Materials other than during to the extent necessary to provide the Services to Client, and all other rights in and to the Client Materials are expressly reserved by Client.

6.2 Ownership of Provider Materials.

Provider is and shall remain the sole and exclusive owner of all right, title, and interest in and to all materials, including Intellectual Property Rights therein, developed by Provider or its licensors prior to, or independent from, the performance of Services under this Agreement, and all methodologies, software, applications, processes or procedures used, created, or developed by Provider in the general conduct of its business (collectively, "Provider Materials").

Provider Materials do not include materials developed specifically for Client under a work-for-hire agreement. Client shall have no right or license to use any Provider Materials other than those rights expressly granted in this Agreement, and all other rights in and to the Provider Materials are expressly reserved by Provider.

6.3 License to Certain Client Intellectual Property.

Client grants Provider a non-exclusive, perpetual, irrevocable and worldwide license to copy, store, display, print and distribute any and all Client Materials provided by Client or its agents, including but not limited to photographs, artwork, text and graphics, in any media, presently known or unknown, including but not limited to Provider's electronic publications on the Internet and in any archival retrieval system whether that information is digitally stored or stored on any other media.

Provider has no obligation to return any material (including Client Material) submitted to Provider by or on behalf of Client or any other party, and Provider shall have no liability for its loss or destruction. Provider and its service providers shall have the right to use any Ad published in or distributed by a Provider publication for the purpose of promoting any of the products and services of Provider or applicable service provider.

7 Fees and Expenses; Payment

7.1 Fees and Expenses.

In consideration of the provision of the Services and the rights granted to Client under this Agreement, Client shall pay Provider the fees agreed to in each Order and as may be further described in an applicable Exhibit (the "Fees"). Client agrees to reimburse Provider for all reasonable out-of-pocket expenses incurred by Provider in connection with the performance of the Services.

7.2 Payments.

Client shall pay all Invoices within thirty 30 days of Invoice date or as otherwise stated on the Invoice. "Invoice" means any electronic or paper request for payment regardless of the title of the document. Invoices may be titled “statement” or “bill,” and other possible titles.

Credit privileges may be suspended on Client accounts that are not paid in accordance with applicable terms. For prepaid accounts, payment in the form of check, credit card or ACH must be received by Provider in advance of space deadline from accounts that have not established credit with Provider. Clients with established credit terms wishing to pay their account by using a credit card must make payment by the due date on the Invoice. It is Client’s responsibility to advise Provider’s credit department immediately, via registered mail, of any change in business structure or status.

7.3 Invoice Disputes.

Client waives any dispute regarding any item included in an Invoice unless notice and amount of such dispute is provided to Provider within fifteen (15) days of the Invoice date. Client may call Provider to discuss an invoice dispute, however, notice of a dispute must be sent to: accounting@epgacceleration.com or any other email or physical address as Provider may update from time to time. A telephone call is not notice of an Invoice dispute under this Section 7.3. The notice under this Section 7.3 shall state the reason(s) for the dispute. Client agrees to pay any undisputed portion of an Invoice per this Agreement, and to work diligently and cooperate with Provider to resolve a dispute.

7.4 Late Payment and Collections.

Except for invoiced payments that Client has successfully disputed, Client shall be responsible for all costs incurred by Publisher in connection with the collection of any amounts owing hereunder, including without limitation, collection fees, court costs and reasonable attorneys’ fees.

7.5 No Set-Off.

Unless otherwise agreed to by the Parties, Client may not set off against amounts due to Provider under this Agreement any amounts owed by Provider to Client.

7.6 Taxes.

All prices are exclusive of all sales, use and excise taxes, and any other similar taxes, duties and charges of any kind imposed by any governmental authority on any amounts payable by Client pursuant to this Agreement. Client shall be responsible for all such charges, costs and taxes and all amounts paid by Provider in discharge of the foregoing taxes. This provision shall survive termination or expiration of this Agreement.

8 Representations and Warranties; Compliance with Laws

Client represents, warrants and covenants that (a) it has full power and authority to enter into this Agreement and perform its obligations hereunder; (b) its performance of this Agreement will not violate any contracts with third parties; (c) all materials and digital files submitted to EPG do not contain any computer viruses or other damaging code; (d) include no libelous or defamatory statements, claims or representations, and EPG’s use of the Client Materials will not violate any rights of any third parties, including but not limited to Intellectual Property Rights, and civil rights; and (e) all Ad Materials and campaigns comply with all applicable laws, regulations, and FTC and industry guidelines, including but not limited to: local, state and federal laws regarding political advertising and fair housing, and Native Advertising: A Guide for Business at <https://www.ftc.gov/tips-advice/business-center/guidance/native-advertising-guide-businesses> (December 2015, or the most current version thereof). Client represents and warrants that it has obtained all necessary consents, authorizations, and releases before submitting Ad Material, and all statements and direct and indirect claims made in any Ads are accurate and true and supported by competent and reliable substantiation. “Ad Materials” means any materials, including but not limited to preprint, printed or digital images, video, or audio Client submits or makes available to EPG.

Client also represents, warrants, covenants and agrees that (a) its Ads and Ad campaigns will comply with EPG’s privacy policy, the California Online Privacy Protection Act, and the Self-Regulatory Principles for Online Behavioral Advertising at <http://www.aboutads.info/obaprinciples>; and

(b) its email campaigns will comply with the 2003 CAN-SPAM Act.

Client represents and warrants no portion of its Ads, Ad Materials, or other Client Materials infringes the intellectual property rights of any third party.

9 Indemnification

Client shall defend, indemnify and hold harmless Provider and its affiliates, subsidiaries, and their respective directors, officers, principals, managers, members, partners, shareholders, employees, and controlling persons and their affiliates (Provider and each such person being an "Indemnified Party"), against any and all losses, damages, liabilities, deficiencies, claims, actions, judgments, demands, settlements, interest, awards, penalties, fines, costs, or expenses of whatever kind, including attorneys' fees, fees and the costs of enforcing any right to indemnification (collectively, "Losses"), arising out of or resulting from: (i) Client's breach of this Agreement; (ii) any negligence or willful act or omission of Client or its personnel or affiliates in connection with Client's performance of its obligations under this Agreement; (iii) the content of, or representations made in any Ad or any website linked to from an Ad; and (iv) any other claims of any nature arising from or attributable to the publication or distribution of any Ad. Client shall indemnify, defend and hold harmless the Indemnified Parties from any demand, claim, verdict, loss, or determination that an Ad and/or Client Materials or any of its contents in any way infringes the intellectual property rights of any third party, including but not limited to trademark, copyright, patent, and trade secret.

10 Limitation of Liability

Except with respect to Client's indemnification and confidentiality obligations, in no event will either Party be liable to the other for any consequential, incidental, indirect, exemplary, special or punitive damages whatsoever (including damages for loss of use, revenue or profit, business interruption and loss of information), whether arising out of breach of contract, tort (including negligence) or otherwise, regardless of whether such damage was foreseeable and whether or not such Party has been advised of the possibility of such damages. In no event shall Provider be liable to Client for any amount greater than the amount paid by Client to Provider under this Agreement during the prior month preceding the date of the matter or event giving rise to the claim of Loss, and Client must give notice of Loss no later than three (3) months from the occurrence of the matter or event giving rise to the Loss.

PROVIDER EXPRESSLY DISCLAIMS ALL WARRANTIES TO THE FULLEST EXTENT PERMITTED BY LAW REGARDING ITS SERVICES OR ANY PORTION THEREOF, INCLUDING ANY IMPLIED WARRANTY OF MERCHANTABILITY OR FITNESS FOR A PARTICULAR PURPOSE, ANY IMPLIED WARRANTIES ARISING FROM COURSE OF DEALING OR COURSE OF PERFORMANCE, AND ANY WARRANTY REGARDING (a) THE NUMBER OF PERSONS WHO WILL ACCESS ANY ONLINE ADVERTISEMENT, ON ANY PROVIDER WEBSITE OR THE CLIENT WEBSITE; (b) ANY BENEFIT CLIENT MIGHT OBTAIN FROM ANY ADVERTISING; (c) THE SPEED, ACCESSIBILITY, OPERATION OR FUNCTIONALITY OF ANY ADVERTISING TO BE DISPLAYED ONLINE; AND ANY WARRANTY THAT THE AD, AD MATERIALS OR ANY PRODUCT OR SERVICES PROVIDED BY PROVIDER WILL BE ERROR-FREE.

11 Client Represented by Agency

To the extent this Agreement is entered into by an Agency acting on Client's behalf, Agency's representative represents and warrants that he or she has all necessary authority to enter into this Agreement on behalf of Client. Agency represents and warrants that it has all necessary authority to enter into this Agreement on behalf of Client.

Any obligation of Client pursuant to this Agreement may be satisfied by an Agency which has been duly appointed by Client to act on Client's behalf and shall be deemed to be an obligation of Client and the Agency. Additionally, any right of Client pursuant to this Agreement may be exercised by the Agency, and shall be deemed to be a right of Client and the Agency. Collectively, the Client and Agency will be referred to as "Client." Each shall be jointly and severally liable for the obligations, acts, and omissions of the other.

Agency shall be liable for payment for all advertising placed and invoiced by each Provider publication in which Agency places an advertisement, regardless of any contrary language in any past, contemporaneous or future writing, regardless of whether it receives payment from Client, and regardless of whether the identity of the Agency's client is known to such publication. Agency will make available to Provider upon request written confirmation of the relationship between Agency and Client and of Agency's authorization to act on Client's behalf in connection with this Agreement. In addition, upon the request of Provider, Agency will confirm whether Client has paid to Agency in advance funds sufficient to make payments pursuant to the Order.

12 Confidentiality

Provider may disclose or make available to the Client (as the "Receiving Party") information about its business affairs and services, confidential information and materials comprising or relating to Intellectual Property Rights, third-party confidential information and other sensitive or proprietary information, as well as the terms of this Agreement including but not limited to the pricing and rates, whether orally or in written, electronic or other form of media, and whether or not marked, designated or otherwise identified as "confidential" (collectively, "Confidential Information"). Client shall from the time of receipt/disclosure of such Confidential Information: (x) protect and safeguard the confidentiality of the Provider's Confidential Information with at least the same degree of care as the Client would protect its own Confidential Information, but in no event with less than a commercially reasonable degree of care; (y) not use the Provider's Confidential Information, or permit it to be accessed or used, for any purpose other than to exercise its rights or perform its obligations under this Agreement; and (z) not disclose any such Confidential Information to any person, except to the Client's representatives who need to know the Confidential Information to assist the Client, or act on its behalf, to exercise its rights or perform its obligations under this Agreement. The Client shall be responsible for any breach of this Section caused by any of its representatives or agents. At any time during or after the Term, at the Provider's written request, the Client and its representatives shall promptly return/destroy all Confidential Information and copies thereof that it has received under this Agreement. A breach of this Section 12 may be deemed a material breach of the Agreement and any Order thereunder, in the sole discretion of Provider.

13 Termination

Unless otherwise stated in an applicable Order or Exhibit, Publisher may terminate this Agreement or any portion thereof, including any Order, at any time, with or without notice to Client, for Client's breach of this Agreement.

Upon termination, Client will promptly return all Provider Confidential Information to Provider and retain no copy, other than as required by applicable law; return all of Provider's Intellectual Property to Provider and pay all undisputed fees and/or invoices.

14 Other Terms

14.1 Force Majeure

Except for payment obligations, neither Party will be liable for failure to perform any obligation required under this Agreement when such failure is due acts or events beyond its reasonable control, including but not limited to fire, flood, labor disputes or strikes, unavoidable accident, government action, legal restrictions, electronic or electrical interference, telecommunications difficulties, system failure, technical failure, equipment breakdown, failure of any third party system or product, or any other cause beyond the control of that Party.

14.2 Assignment

Client may not resell, assign, or transfer any of its rights or obligations under this Agreement without the prior written consent of Provider. All terms and conditions in this Agreement will be binding upon and inure to the benefit of the Parties and their respective permitted transferees, successors, and assigns.

14.3 Severability

If any provision hereof is held invalid or unenforceable, such invalidity shall not affect the validity or operation of any other provision.

14.4 Relationship of Parties

Nothing in this Agreement creates any agency, joint venture, partnership or other form of joint enterprise, employment, or fiduciary relationship between the Parties. Provider is an independent contractor pursuant to this Agreement. Neither Party has any express or implied right or authority to assume or create any obligations on behalf of or in the name of the other Party or to bind the other Party to any contract, agreement or undertaking with any third party. The Parties agree there are no third-party beneficiaries of an Order or of the Agreement and no third-party shall have any rights under any Order or the Agreement.

14.5 Governing Law and Venue

This Agreement shall be governed by and construed in accordance with the laws of the State of Minnesota without regard to its conflicts of laws provisions. Any controversy or claim arising out of or relating to this Agreement, or the breach thereof, shall be settled by arbitration administered by the American Arbitration Association under its Commercial Arbitration Rules, and judgment on the award rendered by the arbitrator(s) may be entered in any court having jurisdiction thereof. Notwithstanding any rule to the contrary, each Party shall be responsible for its own fees and costs. Hennepin County, Minnesota, shall be the sole venue under this Agreement and the Parties waive any objection to this venue.

14.6 Notice

Client agrees to accept notice for any purpose by email, postal mail, or courier to any email or mailing address disclosed or known to Provider. The mailing address for notice to Publisher is the following unless Publisher subsequently identifies a different address: EPG Media, 7760 France Avenue South, Suite 810, Bloomington, MN 55435

14.7 Complete Agreement, Modification, and Waiver

This Agreement constitutes the final, complete, and exclusive statement of the terms of the Agreement between the Parties with respect to all advertising and supersedes all prior and contemporaneous understandings or agreements of the Parties, unless otherwise noted in this Agreement. This Agreement may be modified only by a written document signed by an authorized representative of both Parties. Waiver of any of the terms of this Agreement by Provider in any instance shall not prevent Provider from subsequently enforcing any provision of this Agreement in accordance with its terms.

14.8 Survival

Provisions that by their nature are intended to survive termination or expiration of the Agreement shall survive, including but not limited to Sections 6 (Intellectual Property), 7 (Fees, Expenses, and Payments), 8 (Representations and Warranties; Compliance with Laws), 9 (Indemnification), 10 (Limitation of Liability), 11 (Client Represented by Agency), 12 (Confidentiality), 13 (Termination) and 14 (Other Terms), and any other terms, including addendums, attachments, and exhibits not listed here and which by their nature shall survive termination or expiration of this Agreement.

14.9 IAB Compliance

Provider is IAB compliant when and where applicable, including but not limited to Website Impression Based-Buys.

14.10 Events

An "Event" is a specific exposition or Event set forth in an applicable agreement. Exhibit B is fully incorporated into this Agreement and the terms of Exhibit B apply to Events.

14.11 Headings

Section headings are for reference and convenience only and will not affect the interpretation of this Agreement.

Exhibit A

Ad Publishing Services

This Exhibit A, Ad Publishing Services, shall apply to all Orders relating to EPG's delivery of Ad publishing services to Client. To the extent Client purchases such services in an Order, this Exhibit A is incorporated into the Agreement. Any terms not separately defined in this Exhibit A shall have the meanings stated in the Agreement. References to "Publisher" and "Provider" in this Exhibit A shall each mean EPG Media, LLC.

1 Ad Preparation and Acceptance for All Placements

1.1 No Legal Review

Publisher does not assume any obligation to perform legal review of Ads, Ad Materials, or campaigns, statements, claims, documents, images, or any other materials or information in any format. Client represents and warrants that Client relies on its own legal review to the extent it deems necessary.

1.2 Ad Preparation and Altering at the Request of Client

On request by Client, and for a fee determined by Publisher, Publisher may assist Client in preparing its Ads for publication. This assistance may include design, composition, text and artwork. Publisher retains all rights, including copyright, to all Ad layouts and other elements that represent the creative effort of Publisher or contain material prepared by Publisher. Client will receive for a period of five (5) years a license to use, publish, distribute, transmit, archive, store, publicly display and perform the Ad. Other than as set forth above, Client shall not authorize photographic or other reproduction of any such Ad layout in any other publication without the express written consent of Publisher. Other than as set forth in this agreement, there is no transfer of any right, title or interest in any intellectual property of Publisher to Client. Client remains solely responsible for the contents of the Ad(s) and for compliance with any laws regulating such advertising as represented by Client in Section 8 of the Standard Terms and Conditions above.

1.3 Ad Acceptance

Submission of an Ad, and any Ad Materials to Publisher does not constitute a commitment by Publisher to publish or distribute the Ad. Publisher accepts an Ad only by publishing or distributing such Ad.

1.4 Ad Material Delivery

Failure of Client to meet any deadlines may result in additional charges and changes in publication or distribution dates.

Client shall be responsible for timely providing to Publisher all Ad Material necessary for publication and distribution of the Ads, including all necessary artwork and/or digital files, the timing and formats of which may be more specifically set forth in the Order or in Publisher's Marketing Engagement Guide(s). In the event that all necessary materials are not received in time for the scheduled run date, and unless otherwise specifically instructed by Client, Publisher may, at its sole discretion, use artwork or other materials from previous Ads placed by Client, if applicable. Publisher will not be responsible for Ad Material that is not properly formatted or displayed or that cannot be accessed or viewed because it was not received by Publisher in the proper form, in a timely manner, or in an acceptable technical quality for mobile or online publication.

Submission of Ad Materials by Client to Publisher that do not conform to the Order may be deemed a breach of the Agreement by Publisher. In the event of submission of non-conforming Ad Materials by Client to Publisher, Publisher shall have the option of adjusting the price, which Client agrees to pay, or not placing the Ad.

Publisher prohibits, and may postpone, cancel or otherwise return, any Ad Material that violates its advertising standards, including but not limited to advertising that violates applicable laws, includes or promotes pornography, illegal activity, illegal goods, illegal drugs, illegal drug paraphernalia, pirated computer programs, and instructions on how to assemble or otherwise make explosives or other weapons.

For Digital Ads, Publisher will make required technical specifications electronically accessible to Client. If Ad Materials are delivered late, Publisher is not required to guarantee full delivery of the IO. In cases in which the applicable IO is for share-of-voice placement or otherwise not for impression-based delivery, if the Ad Materials are not received by Publisher in time for launch, then Publisher may charge the Client on the IO start date on a pro rata basis.

1.5 Rejection and Alteration of Ads

To ensure the integrity of our publications and for the benefit of our readers and Clients, Publisher reserves the right to revise, reclassify, edit or reject any Ad Material or any portion thereof at any time. Publisher at all times reserves the right to refuse to publish any Ad text or other content for any reason and regardless of whether any such Ad Material was previously accepted by Publisher.

Publisher reserves the right to alter any Ad Material in order for the material to conform to Publisher's current mechanical or technical specifications. The rates stated in the Order or rate card shall remain the same upon a reduction in the size of any Ad as long as the Ad maintains the same proportion of the entire page. Rates are based on column inch size rather than actual published size, which may have shrinkage related to the printing process.

Publisher shall notify Client when it rejects Ad Materials due to unsatisfactory technical quality, inappropriate content, or any other reason. Publisher reserves the right to reject Ad Materials for any reason, or no reason in its sole discretion.

Once submitted, Client may replace creative copy for Digital Ads only with twenty-four (24) hours prior written notice to Publisher.

1.6 Position Requests

For preprint and publication print Ads, placement or location of advertising is not guaranteed. Any specific Ad placement condition shall not be legally binding upon Publisher but will be treated as a request only and Publisher shall not be deemed in breach of the Agreement if it does not publish or distribute an Ad in a requested position.

1.7 Labeling of Ads

When, in the opinion of Publisher, any Ad resembles news matter, such Ad shall be plainly designated as advertising by the word "Advertisement" or other such designation deemed appropriate by Publisher.

2 Financial Terms

2.1 Rates

This Exhibit A expressly incorporates the terms and conditions of any rate cards that apply to the publications in which Client has requested that Ads be placed. If there is a conflict between Client's Order and the rate card or the price quoted by Publisher, the Order will control. Unless otherwise specified in the Order, Client agrees to pay Publisher's published rates in effect for applicable advertising at the time of placement of an Order. For Agreements and/or Orders that contain a dollar-value commitment, Client's rate will change as its contract-to-date spending reaches higher levels; i.e., as Client's actual spend accumulates, future advertising will be charged at the rate corresponding to the higher dollar volume level, but rate changes are not applied retroactively. For example, if Client commits to purchasing $1 million of advertising in one year, and Publisher's rate card rates provide a volume discount that increases with volume, then the first purchases would be at the regular price, and the last purchases would be at the discounted price for $1 million.

Rates for in-paper advertising appearing within news and feature sections of a publication are not tied to circulation.

2.2 Rate Changes

Publisher shall have the right to revise the advertising rates at any time upon notice to Client of such rates. Client may terminate this Agreement on the date the new rates become effective by giving written notice within 30 days of such termination. In the event of such termination, Client shall be liable for Ads published prior to such termination at the Current Agreement Rate. "Current Agreement Rate" is defined as the billing rate in effect at the time of placement.

If an Order requires Publisher to preprint and/or print the Ad and there is an increase in the cost of paper at any time during the Term of the Agreement, Client understands and agrees that the advertising rates in the Order may be adjusted to reflect that increase automatically upon the effective date of the cost of paper increase.

If an Order requires Publisher to mail the Ad and the U.S. Postal Service implements a postage cost increase at any time during the Term of the Agreement, Client understands and agrees that the advertising rates set forth in the Agreement shall be adjusted to reflect that increase automatically upon the effective date of the United States Postal Service increase.

2.3 Insert Pricing

For advertising inserts distributed via insertion in Publisher's publication and/or via Publisher's non-subscriber distribution program(s), quantity billed is based on the delivery quantity requirements provided by Publisher to Client. Delivery quantity requirements are based on an estimate of circulation ordered plus an estimate for non-subscriber distribution, if any, plus provision for unsold copies of the publications, and an estimated amount for shipment and machine spoilage. Publication circulation is variable, therefore it is recommended that Client confirm delivery quantity requirements with their advertising sales representative just prior to ordering a print run. However, Publisher shall not be responsible for, nor provide rate adjustments for shortages or overages in delivery quantity requirements realized through circulation fluctuations or for circulation missed, caused by shortages in the Client's insert quantity provided.

3 Termination

(a) Provider shall have the right to terminate this Agreement or any portion thereof, including any Order, at any time, with or without notice to Client, for Client's failure to remit payment for Invoices by the due date of such Invoices. (b) Provider reserves the right, in its sole discretion, to review the volume of advertising placed on a quarterly basis and to cancel the Agreement, if advertising placed falls 15% or more below the quarterly average volume needed to fulfill the twelve-month Agreement amount if Client has such an Agreement with Provider. Failure of Provider to review the frequency of advertising or cancel the Agreement for any reason shall not be deemed a waiver of the right to cancel in the future or to impose any applicable rate adjustment. (c)

Subject to the terms of subsection (e) of this Section 3, Client who has purchased advertising Services shall have the right to terminate this Agreement at any time by written notice to Provider and Client's notice of termination shall be effective upon the next Ad close date, and (d) Provider shall have the right to terminate this Agreement or any portion thereof, including an Order, for any reason or no reason, and at any time by written notice to Client, in which event and so long as Client has been meeting its revenue, volume or other commitment to Provider over time in a way that is consistent with Client reaching its final commitment, Client shall be liable for advertising prior to such termination at the Current Agreement Rate. (e) Except for a termination under subsection (d) above, in the event the Agreement is terminated or for any other reason Client fails to purchase during the Term of the Agreement or applicable Order the advertising generating the revenue, volume or other commitment due to Provider, Client immediately shall pay to Provider the lesser of the following: (i) the original commitment made to Provider under the Agreement and/or applicable Order(s) or (ii) an amount for all advertising published during the Term including advertising previously billed ("Amount Due"), adjusted for space, inserts and color actually used. The unpaid balance of such adjusted Amount Due shall be based upon the "Actual Rate Earned" for advertising during the Term. The "Actual Rate Earned" is defined as the rate which would have been payable by Client if the amount of advertising actually purchased during the Term had been contracted for in the first instance, and such Actual Rate Earned shall be ascertained by reference to the applicable Provider rate card in effect on the date that the advertising was published.

4 Liability for Errors, Omissions, Cancellations

4.1 For All Placements

It is Client's responsibility to check for errors in its Ads before and after publication or distribution. Client shall check the first appearance of Ads for correction and Publisher shall be liable for only one incorrect publication or distribution, and then only if Client notifies Publisher of the error in a timely manner so as to afford Publisher a reasonable time to correct the error before an additional incorrect publication and/or distribution. Publisher shall not be liable for any error if, at Publisher's option, Publisher subsequently publishes a corrected Ad. Publisher's liability for an error shall not exceed the amount paid by Client for the space occupied by the error.

Publisher is not responsible for errors on copy received after deadline. Publisher assumes no financial responsibility for typographical errors, or for omission of copy of Ads.

Client shall be responsible for paying the rate card or Marketing Engagement Guide(s) price for any Ads published based on Ad Materials that do not meet the criteria in the Order or Marketing Engagement Guide(s). For example, if the Order is for a black-and-white Ad, and Client submits a color image, then Publisher will either convert the image to black-and-white, or have the right to use the color image in the Ad, and charge Client the color Ad price.

Publisher is not responsible for errors involving Orders, cancellations or corrections given orally. Written or facsimile confirmation of Orders, cancellations, or corrections must be received prior to Publisher's cancellation deadline. Publisher will publish and distribute Ads and bill Client for all Orders that are not canceled prior to the deadline. Client may be subject to a cancellation charge when such cancellation results in production delays.

4.2 Additional Liability Terms for Print Ads

Client agrees and understands that despite Publisher's efforts, a relatively small number of publications may not carry Client's Ad as ordered, and that Client's Ad may not appear in all digital versions of the publication because advertising does not appear in some digital copies of the publication. Publisher shall have no liability for publications that do not carry the Client's Ad.

Publisher's liability for failure to publish or display any Ad or distribute any Ad insert shall be limited to a refund of any amount paid to Publisher for such placement as Client's sole and exclusive remedy.

Publisher's liability for errors or omissions in print and/or preprint advertisements shall be limited to the cost of advertising space in an amount equal to the erroneous portion of the advertisement. Publisher's liability for errors in distribution of advertising inserts shall be limited to the cost of distribution of the improperly distributed advertising inserts as Client's sole and exclusive remedy. Publisher shall have no liability for, and no credit shall be issued to Client for, errors that do not materially affect the value of the advertisement or advertising insert or where Client is responsible for the error or omission. Credits for errors in advertisements or advertising inserts materially affected by the error are allowed for the first publication or distribution only.

Publisher is not liable and assumes no responsibility for damage that occurs to mail pieces as a result of the processing and delivery operations of the U.S. Post Office or any third-party delivery service, retailer or distributor of the publication(s).

In the event Client has paid a premium for a particular position, as stated in an Order or invoice, damages for failure to publish in a particular position shall be limited to the refund of the premium paid as Client's sole and exclusive remedy. With respect to advertising inserts, such reimbursement shall be limited to a refund of that portion of the premium associated with the portion of the advertising inserts that were not distributed in accordance with the specific position request, as Client's sole and exclusive remedy.

4.3 Additional Liability Terms for Digital Ads

If Publisher is unable to display any digital Ad for any reason, Publisher shall at its option either (a) provide substitute advertising of comparable value ("makegood"), or (b) refund to Client a pro rata portion of the fee Client has paid to Publisher.

5. Digital Impressions for Digital Ads

If Advertising is based on a specified number of impressions (CPM), an impression will be counted according to Publisher's standard practices. Without limiting the foregoing, an impression will be counted whenever served by Publisher, regardless of viewability, whether served to an end user or to an intermediate or third party ad server ("Third Party Ad Server"), and/or whenever Publisher sends a request to a Third Party Ad Server to serve any Ad. Ads may include a link to Client's website by using the "back" button on their browser or any other standard means. In the event that advertising is preempted, Publisher will substitute advertising of comparable value.

6. Digital Third Party Ad Serving and Tracking for Digital Ads

Publisher will track delivery of impressions on its websites through its ad server and, provided that Publisher has approved in writing a Third Party Ad Server to run on its properties, Client will track delivery through such Third Party Ad Server. Client may not substitute the specified Third Party Ad Server without Publisher's prior written consent. If the difference between Publisher's measurement and the Third Party Ad Server measurement exceeds 10% over the Invoice period and the Third Party Ad Server measurement is lower, the Parties will facilitate a reconciliation effort between Publisher and Third Party Ad Server measurements. If the discrepancy cannot be resolved and a good faith effort to facilitate the reconciliation has been made, the Client reserves the right to either: (a) consider the discrepancy an under-delivery and Client and Publisher will use commercially reasonable efforts to agree upon the conditions of a makegood flight; and delivery of any makegood will be measured by the Third Party Ad Server, or (b) pay the Invoice based on the Third Party Ad Server measurement, plus a 10% upward adjustment to delivery. If the discrepancy exceeds 20%, the Client may either: (x) consider the discrepancy an under-delivery and Client and Publisher will use commercially reasonable efforts to agree upon the conditions of a makegood flight; and delivery of any makegood will be measured by the Third Party Ad Server, or (y) pay the Invoice based on the average of the Third Party Ad Server measurement and Publisher's measurement.

7. Ownership of Digital Content

As between the Parties, Publisher owns all right, title and interest in and to all content on the Publisher websites (except for Ad Materials) and all other content, html and code. Nothing in this Agreement or otherwise precludes Publisher from using any code, design, idea, concept or material used in connection with this Agreement or an Order on behalf of itself or any third party. Publisher owns all right, title and interest in and to any data about users of its websites. Client agrees Publisher may bring any claims Publisher may, in its reasonable discretion, choose to pursue to prevent third party use of the content or data contained in any Ad, without Client's consent.

8. Use of Collected Data for Digital Ads

Provided that Client complies with all applicable laws, rules and regulations, and applicable industry guidelines (including those named in Section 8 of the Standard Terms and Conditions, and its own privacy policy) Client may use data regarding a campaign for retargeting a User (defined as a Publisher website visitor) or appending data to a non-public profile regarding a user for purposes other than performing an insertion order, so long as it is not joined with any IO details or data that would allow identification of Publisher or its Users. Client may use advertising performance data for internal media planning purposes only and may disclose qualitative evaluations of such data to its clients and potential clients only for the purpose of media planning and only when the data is aggregated with other campaign data.

9. Ad Preparation, Acceptance and Other Terms for Email Campaigns Only

9.1 Email Campaigns: CAN-SPAM Compliance

Pursuant to the CAN-SPAM Act of 2003, Client agrees that the Client will ensure that the "From" line at the time of delivery of the email Ad will be accurate in all particulars and identify the person or business who initiated the message. Upon signature of the IO, Client will provide Publisher with a copy of its list of email addresses that have opted out of receiving commercial email from Client, if it has such a list.

9.2 Email Campaigns: Advertising Content

Upon signature of the IO, Client will provide Publisher with images and other content it would like to include in its email Ad. In the event that Client does not provide all content for the Ad, Publisher's service provider may add additional content that the provider has the right to use for this purpose, and will retain its rights in such added content.

9.3 Email Campaigns: Approval

Publisher will provide Client with a copy of the Ad to review prior to deployment of the email campaign. Client must object to the Ad within two (2) business days, or it will be deemed approved.

9.4 Email Campaigns: Cancellation Policy

Upon receipt of a signed IO, work begins and expenses are incurred. Therefore, IOs for commercial email campaigns cannot be cancelled once submitted.

This section is not a representation or warranty that Client materials will be reviewed by Management or that Client will have an opportunity to revise Client materials and any such representation and warranty is expressly disclaimed by Management.

If Management cancels the Event in its entirety, this Agreement shall terminate and Client waives all claims it might have against Management and Venue management for damages and expenses. If such cancellation is due to any reason covered by Section 16 below, Client waives all claims it has or may have against Management for damages and/or expenses, including costs incurred in anticipation of the Event, and Client agrees to accept as its sole remedy and in complete satisfaction and discharge of all claims against Management and Venue management a refund as described in Section 16 below. Management will, however, in the event of its not being able to hold the Event for any such reason, reimburse Client for no more than a prorated amount of the aggregate fees received after Management has deducted expenses incurred by Management and to be incurred by Management (which may include but are not limited to, marketing, advertising, salaries, wages, rental costs/expenses, lease costs/expenses, operating costs/expenses, salaries, and wages,) but in no case shall the amount of the refund exceed the amount of fees paid by Client.

18. Event Location and Schedule Changes.

Management shall use commercially reasonable efforts to promote the Event and conduct the Event on the indicated dates. Client agrees that Management may change the name and/or the location of the Event, change the dates of the Event, or may move all or some portion of the Event to an Internet format, to which all terms and conditions of the Agreement shall apply, as well as additional terms and conditions to be set forth by Management. Client hereby accepts the additional terms and conditions. In the event of any changes described in this section, Management will notify Client of such change or changes; and reasonably alter Client's rights under the Agreement.

19. Limitation of Liability.

Client acknowledges and agrees: (i) there is risk of injury and illness from participating in the Event, including (in particular, and without limitation) risks of exposure, directly or indirectly, to any infectious or communicable disease, including, but not limited to, COVID-19 and/or any variation thereof. In no event shall Venue, Management, or Venue management, or any of their respective affiliates, representatives, employees, agents, attorneys, assigns and successors be liable for any incidental, indirect, special punitive or consequential damages arising out of or in connection with this Agreement. The liability of the Venue, Management, Venue management and their respective affiliates, representatives, employees, agents, attorneys, assigns and successors, and Client's remedy for any claim of loss or damage arising from or related to this Agreement, regardless of the form of action, shall be limited to the fees paid by Client to Management hereunder. Client agrees that Management will not be liable for any errors or omissions in any materials provided by Management. Client acknowledges and accepts this limitation of liability as consideration of Client being allowed to participate in the Event.

21. Activities Outside of Event Prohibited.

If a court of competent jurisdiction finds any provision of this Agreement to be unenforceable, that provision will be enforced to the maximum extent permitted so as to effect the intent of the parties as fully as possible, and the remainder of this Agreement will continue in full force and effect. The failure of Management to enforce any of the provisions of this Agreement shall not constitute a waiver of such provisions or the right of Management to enforce each and every provision at a later time, pursuant to the Agreement. Any waiver must be in a writing signed by an authorized representative of Management.

27. No Assignment by Client.

Client may not assign the Agreement or any part of the Agreement without the prior written consent of Management, which may be withheld in the sole discretion of Management. To the extent there is a conflict of terms, this Attachment One shall control regarding its subject matter of an exhibitor showcase.

a. Assignment of Space by Management. Space within the exhibitor showcase will be assigned by Management in its sole discretion and for the Event and the Event dates only. Management may change the floor plan or move Client to another location prior to or during the Event for any or no reason.

Use of Space. Client shall maintain its exhibit as open and staffed during all Event hours. Management, in its sole discretion, reserves the right to prohibit, remove, or decline an exhibit or any portion thereof, if it deems the exhibit is inappropriate or out theme of the Event. This applies as to, but is not limited to, printed material, advertisements, products, conduct of Client and Client affiliates, and noise level. Client agrees to change, to the satisfaction of Management, any sign, advertisement, manner of display or promotion of product, materials, and/or conduct determined by Management, in its sole discretion, not to be in the best interest of the Event. Balloons and neon or similar signs are prohibited. Exhibits that are, in the sole discretion of Management, obstructive or loud, and activities producing objectionable noise or odors or that create a risk of safety, are prohibited. Sound amplifying devices may be operated only at levels not objectionable to Management. Client must limit advertising material and activities, including solicitations, to Client's assigned space, and Client's exhibit, products, advertising and any activities must remain within Client's assigned space and not extend into any other space, including unoccupied space, as well as the aisle. Client shall not arrange its exhibit so as to obscure or interfere with other exhibitors, as determined by Management. All demonstrations and/or exhibits by Client must be located so that crowds are in the Client's space and do not block any aisle or neighboring exhibits. Sharing of exhibit space is not permitted without the prior written consent of Management. If Client has not occupied its assigned space by the time determined for completion of installation/and or move in, the space may be reassigned. Installation and/or move in after the determined deadline may be prohibited in the sole discretion of Management.

If the Event does not provide turn-key space through Management-directed decorator services, standard equipment (identification sign, wall draping, or equivalent) may be provided by Management without cost to Client. If Client plans to install a constructed display of such a character that Client will not require or desire the use of standard booth equipment, no part thereof shall so project as to obstruct the view of adjacent booths. If there is sidewalk construction, a booth or display may taper diagonally from eight (8) feet at the back wall to floor level at the aisle, or extend as a high panel four (4) feet from back wall, and the remaining side rail may not be in excess of four (4) feet in height. Exceptions to the above specifications are authorized for all self-contained island configurations where a sixteen (16) foot height restriction will apply unless Management or the Venue specifies otherwise. The eight (8) foot back wall restriction is removed for all peripheral booths where a twelve (12) foot height restriction will be in effect unless the Venue specifies otherwise. The weight of any exhibit or equipment may not exceed the maximum weight limit of the floor of the Venue. The above-referenced sizes are common and typical but adjustment to the size and dimension may be required based on the needs of the Event, the Venue, or Management. There may be additional restrictions and requirements based on other factors including but not limited to ceiling height, the Venue, or needs of Management and/or Venue management for a successful Event. Material used for wings to booths must be covered or painted if it is visible from the aisle or other booths. Failure to comply with this Agreement and/or Exhibitor Service Manual will result in the alteration or removal of the booth at Client's expense. Fees paid for space and service are non-refundable. Client shall be bound by all applicable laws, codes and regulations of municipal or other authorities having jurisdiction over the Venue or the conducting of the Event, together with the rules and regulations adopted by Management and/or Venue management. "Exhibitor Service Manual" means a manual from the Event, and may include written, video, and oral directions, restrictions and requirements.

Only the primary Client will be entitled to any additional complimentary items offered by Management to the Client. The Client will be responsible for all booth fees, and only the Client will be listed in the Event directory and/or guide.

b. Change of Space. Management may, in its sole discretion, change Client's space assignment within the exhibitor showcase. In the event Management changes Client's exhibit space, Client will be notified of its newly assigned space. Management will make reasonable efforts to ensure that any reassignment will be to a space which is of same size and format as Client's original space. If Management determines a reduction in Client's space is necessary, Client will receive reimbursement on a pro-rata basis.

c. Client Termination. Any termination or cancellation by Client, or failure of Client to occupy the exhibition space assigned to Client may, in Management's sole discretion, and in addition to Management's rights elsewhere in the Agreement, result in partial or complete loss of Client's rights under any applicable sponsorship agreements or other opportunities, including but not limited to the opportunity to present at the Event, or participate in other activities of the Event. In the event of termination, cancellation or default by Client, Management may, but is not required to, license the subject exhibitor showcase space to another participant without any rebate or allowance whatsoever to Client and without in any way releasing Client from any liability hereunder, and Client expressly agrees to pay Management the full contracted amount hereunder.

d. Displays and Venue. Client shall display its products or services in a tasteful manner. All of Client's display must be contained within Client's space except with prior written permission from Management. All advertising distribution must be made within Client's space. Balloons are prohibited in Venue. Moving advertisements and entertainment are not permitted. Client shall not tack on, post, screw, nail, attach with adhesive, advertising, decorations or materials to Venue floors, walls, columns, or any other Venue area without permission from Venue management. Liquids, including for food and other purposes, may not be used where they may damage floors or floor coverings. Exhibit packing, unpacking, and assembly shall be done only in areas designated by Management, and/or Venue management. Distribution and/or sale of alcohol including beer, wine, and spirits is prohibited without prior written authorization from Management and if permitted by Management, Client represents and warrants it shall comply with applicable law relating to alcohol distribution, and shall indemnify, defend, and hold harmless Management, Venue management, and the Venue from any third-party claims, including by a governmental entity, arising from or related to such sale or distribution of alcohol.

e. Exhibit Move In, Move Out. Movement of exhibits in and out of the Venue must be handled by Event contractors designated by Management and/or Venue management. Client will not, and will not allow or direct others, to deliver materials at the Venue without first obtaining the prior written permission from Management. No exhibit will be allowed into the Venue without an official clearance from Management. Client is required to make its own arrangements for packing and transportation of exhibits. Management will not accept or sign for exhibits or other materials on behalf of the Client. Time for move-in and moving-out and access outside of Event hours are limited to those described in an Exhibitor Service Manual or otherwise determined by Management, or as set forth in the Agreement. At such time after the close of the Event as Management may specify or upon earlier termination of this Agreement, all exhibits shall be removed from the Event space and vacant possession of the exhibit space shall be returned to Management. Client shall leave the Event space in a clean, undamaged, and unaltered condition. Clients will pay the cost of repairing any damage caused to the Venue facility by the Client and/or its affiliates including its contractors. Any property remaining after the last day designated by Management for it to be removed may be held or otherwise disposed of by Management or Venue management at the Client's expense. No exhibits may be removed from the Event Venue, or closed, before the Event ends, without the written authorization of Management.

f. Available Services. Management will designate official Event contractors to provide Event related services on an exclusive basis, for purposes including but not limited to: furniture, booth decoration, floor decoration, photographs, signs and other services. Service companies other than the official contractors will not be allowed to perform any of these exclusive services. Non-exclusive services may be performed by Management appointed contractors within certain guidelines. A complete listing of contractors and rates, exclusive services and contractor guidelines will be provided to Client upon request. Management is not liable for any of the services, acts, or omissions, performed by the official Event contractors, or materials delivered by the official Event contractors. Arrangement for these services and payments are to be made between Client and official Event contractors. Client acknowledges there may be local union rules and regulations related to the above services and these rules and regulations are subject to change at any time, and are beyond the control of Management and Venue management. Client agrees to comply with union labor rules and regulations as applicable.

g. Installation and Removal. Pricing, information, and instructions regarding electric work, cleaning, furniture, and labor for construction and removal of exhibits and similar items, will be included in the Exhibitor Service Manual or available upon request by Client. Such pricing, information and instructions are fully incorporated into the Agreement.

h. Security. When applicable and as determined by Management and/or Venue management, Management and/or Venue management will provide perimeter guard service during the Event and for the Venue, while the Event is closed. Client agrees that Management and Venue management is not liable for acts and/or omissions of the guard and or security service. This includes but is not limited to damage, theft or loss of Client's exhibit, equipment, or other materials including personal property. Access to the exhibitor showcase during closed hours may be prohibited by the guard/security service. Client may consider arranging security for its specific booth space for during and after published hours. If Client desires to arrange additional security at its own expense, Client shall provide written notice to Management, and shall reasonably cooperate with Management in arranging security. Client shall be responsible and liable for its security personnel and shall ensure its security personnel, who are deemed Client affiliates, comply with the Agreement and any additional rules, terms, and conditions related to security and presence at the Venue during closed and open hours.

i. Exhibitor Showcase Safety. All display materials used in decoration of Client's exhibitor showcase must be fireproof. If Client's display does not pass fire safety inspection and/or inspection for any other hazard, it shall be closed until any and all fire hazards and any other hazard, including but not limited to electrocution hazards, tripping and fall hazards, and any other hazards are corrected. All electrical equipment and/or devices used in or near an exhibit must be in good operating condition and able to pass fire and/or electrical inspections. Extra materials stored in Client's exhibit space must not block access to the exhibit, the aisle, or cover electrical wires or outlets. Client shall comply with local ordinances, Management, and Venue management requirements relating to safety, health, injury prevention, damage prevention, and fire prevention. If an inspection reveals noncompliance with any applicable law, code or regulation, or Management or Venue management policy or requirement, or if Management determines that an exhibit poses a risk of fire or any other harm to persons, property, or the Venue, or any part thereof, Client shall remove all or a portion of the exhibit, as directed by Management or Venue management, at its own expense. Client agrees and accepts solely, and fully, all responsibility and liability for any property damage or injury to persons or property from its exhibits or equipment, including resulting from the weight or weight distribution of its equipment and/or exhibit, including damage or injury resulting from exceeding the floor load limitations. Client will promptly notify Management and/or Venue management of any observed dangerous condition in the Venue, including those dangerous conditions not related to fire, as well as any dangerous condition even if not caused by Client.
